On January 28, 2022, LPSONU Agents conducted a documentary search warrant on the residence of 104 Royalton Pkwy. While LPSONU Agents were searching for documents in relations to illegal narcotics/ narcotic transactions, agents located a bundle of white pills wrapped in a clear plastic bag in plain view. The bundle of white pills are identified as Oxycodone, which is a schedule II narcotic. The bundle of white pills were located in a back bedroom on the top of the dresser in plain view.

Due to the information provided above, LPSONU Agent Richard Roberts is request a search warrant for 104 Royalton Pkwy.

It is based on the above probable cause that Affiant requests that the court will grant a warrant for the purpose of searching the above-described location and curtilage for the above-described items. Due to the fact illegal narcotics are easily and commonly hidden on someone's person, Affiant further requested the court will grant officers the right to search "all persons" found at or inside the location, curtilage, and inside any vehicles. Affiant also requests that the court will grant said warrant to be executed during the daytime, nighttime, weekends, and/or holidays.
